
MR. JONES'S MOTION.

26th JANUARY, 1803.

Referred to the Committee of the whole House, to whom was committed on the 10th instant, the report of the Committee of Commerce and Manufactures, on so much of the Message from the President of the United States of the 15th ultimo, as "Relates to discriminating and countervailing duties, and the act of the British Parliament on that subject."

1 Resolved, That the repeal of the discriminating duties on 2 foreign tonnage and merchandize imported in foreign vessels,
3 recommended by the committee of commerce and manufactures,
4 in their report on that subject, made on the 10th instant, shall 5 not extend to foreign ships or vessels, or the articles imported
6 therein from the colonies or dependencies of any foreign nation, 7 unless the ships and vessels of the United States, shall enjoy the 8 same privileges in the navigation and trade between the United 9 States and such colonies or dependencies as are or may be allow-10 ed to the ships and vessels of the nation to which such colonies
11 or dependencies may belong.
